We stand in reverend silence
Before thee, Regional High
We thank thee and we bless thee
Thy fame will never die
As through the years we travel
And the days go rolling by
We'll lift our voices even
To thee, dear Regional High.

DEDICATION

IN SINCERE APPRECIATION FOR HIS UNTIRING INTEREST AND FOR THE
LEADERSHIP, GUIDANCE, AND COUN-SEL RENDERED TO US, INDIVIDUALLY
AND COLLECTIVELY, WE, THE CLASS
OF 1941, WISH TO DEDICATE THIS, THE
FIRST ISSUE OF "THE COCKLESHELL,"
TO OUR CLASS ADVISER, MR. A. NEILL CLARK.

A MESSAGE

It is truly a privilege for me to salute the Class of 1941, the first class to be graduated from the Lower Camden County Regional High School, and I do so with a hearty good will.

It is true that you have been with us for only two of your four normal high school years, but it is similarly true that these two years, during which we have been closely associated, comprise the two most important years of your high school career.

You, as a group, came to us when our doors were first officially opened in October, 1939. From that time until the present, you have contributed much to that part of the school's personality which is separate and distinct from the regular class work. Everything that you have done has, from the standpoint of Regional High, been historic in nature; for you have laid the foundation and established the precedent upon which the traditions of the school will, over a period of years, necessarily develop. It is true that together we have experienced some "growing pains," but these are the price of our rapid development and must be acknowledged as such. Surveyed in its entirety, it at once becomes apparent that the short time through which we have worked together has been productive of many fine and good things.

RICHARD S. POLLACK

Supervising Principal

Temple University, Ed. M.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "R. S. Pollack". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned over the printed name and title.

It is my sincere hope that every individual member of the Class of 1941 will, from the day he is graduated, begin to look back on that part of his life which was spent at Regional with a feeling of pleasure and a sense of loyalty and allegiance which will steadily increase with the years. You've had a tough assignment, which you have creditably discharged. May the future treat you kindly and justly reward your efforts.

Signed: R. S. POLLACK
Supervising Principal

After several months of unbroken labor: months of writing, rewriting, typing, taking pictures, collecting and mounting the contents, and the thousand and one other major and minor details that go into the publishing of a yearbook, we present this, the first issue of The Cockleshell, as our best effort.

In this, the first issue of an annual publication of a new school, we have tended to be a bit formal. We have attempted to preserve that air of regularity and dignity in our groups and have substituted for meaningless candid snapshots some that we believe will recall pleasant memories of your days here at Regional.

If, after these months of continuous labor on the part of the editors, the advisers, the staff, the publishers, the photographic studios, you, Gracious Patron, feel a bit of the pride and pleasure that is ours when we present our results to you, then our feeble efforts have not been in vain.

IN MEMORIAM

Catherine Toll

Catherine was a real member of our class, but unfortunately left us in her Junior year. Naturally, we missed her. Catherine, who lived on Erial Road, Sicklerville, grew ill during the first of May and passed away on May 27, 1940, from the dread inflammatory rheumatism. It was her dream to become an air hostess.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '41

PROLOGUE

Please pause, my children, and obligingly hear
Of the graduate class of the forty-first year.

They came in from districts that are quite scattered;

But getting ahead was to them all that mattered.

So here are their antics—some sane, and some queer.

AS FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES

For two years we struggled,
Scattered in seven schools,
Trying to be studious
And learn their many rules.

We tried to act quite grown-up
As they moved us all around,
But now that seems ridiculous,
As in later day's we've found.

AS JUBILANT JUNIORS

At last at R. H. S. we received our recognition.
As juniors we were now in the top-notch position.

We didn't know each other,
So we had a get-together,
And our Barn Dance soon started a Regional tradition.

Beckley, Valentino, Archer, Ferg:
Capable officers elected.
The first, in fact, of Regional,
So recently erected.

Our "Leap Year Dance" in January
Caused some of us much work and worry.
Then came the trouble of choosing a ring,
So to underclassmen its merits we could sing.

"Life Begins at Sixteen,"
Our Junior play renowned;
And on the page of history
It forever will be found.

The Music Lovers gave a concert,
The tickets for which we sold.
We were to have a show with dogs,
But the man got sick, I'm told.

"Hip! Hip! Hurray! The Prom is here!"

A formal and swanky affair.
And at this dance were present

Many a happy pair.

The gym, festooned all gay and bright,
When spring was at its very height.

As this was the first year of Regional High,
The "firsts" of the school! My! My!

They were so large in number,

That they'll ever be a wonder.

But all too soon it ended. (Sigh, sigh.)

AS SOPHISTICATED SENIORS

We all promised to make good as seniors,
Profiting by our experience as juniors,
Our old officers we re-elected,
Feeling we had the best ones selected.

Then we had to concentrate
On selecting our staff
For the first Regional yearbook.

Then each senior had his photograph
Taken; so in years to come
We can sit and at them laugh.

"Our Girls!" Our senior play!
Its praises are sung to this day.
The cast put it on in professional style;
The scenery got compliments "by the mile."

Hail to the class of 1942!

They gave us a "prom" to bid us adieu
A few eves before our departure.

All our hearts were filled with rapture
As we gaily danced. Woo! Woo!

Washington! We had so much fun!
The Greyhound people kept us on the run.

We saw the big town from beginning to end.
A very enjoyable time did we spend.
We look back now and chuckle, "Well done."

Graduation in June!

We leave you, too soon,

As with tears we depart from our school.

Our diplomas we've gotten,

But school's not forgotten—

We'll remember each prank and each rule.

EPILOGUE

Now I've told you about our class
Each detail of the two years past,
For all of our good friends' mirth.
Take it, please, for what it's worth.

CLASS WILL - 1941

We, the class of 1941, realizing how nearly perfect we are in mind, character, and ability, do declare this our last will and testament.

We believe that the lower classmen of our high school could greatly profit by receiving our valuable gifts with humble gratitude.

To the Faculty we leave our many masterpieces, our themes and art projects.

To our class adviser, Mr. Clark, we leave an enormous box of aspirin.

To Lloyd Knowles, Bob Jackson wills his ability to "carry the mail."

Carmella "Chubby" Nibali leaves her plumpness to Lillian Jobes.

Ruth Blaese hesitatingly wills her glistening false teeth to Ann Grimme.

"Lil" Norcross wills her ability to be the noisiest girl around Regional to Kathryn O'Kane.

To Rita Williams, Erma Heppard wills her red locks.

Emma Wright wills her chances with No. "28" to Ida Fisher.

Bob Holloway reluctantly leaves his cigars and pipe to anyone who will take them.

To Kay Lacey, Earl Adams bestows his scientific genius.

Sarah Wolbert bestows upon Edna Aldrich her quiet manner.

To Herman Stapf, Ethel Di Muzio wills her power to perform the most difficult jitterbug steps.

"Bullet" Davey wills his technique of taking "embarrassing" pictures unaware to Lee Wooster.

Gertrude Murray leaves her love for dashing young men from A.H.S. to "Joy" Davey.

To "Sis" Muerdler, Grace Ferg wills her ability to swing the old baton and strut a mean gait.

To Jane Ikiey, Bill Kruse wills his ability to be a general all-round itch.

His lack of stature, Tommy Fean wills to John Holzinger.

Bertha Trout bequeaths her dramatic talents to Pearla Smith.

To Richard Nixon, Florence Fieger leaves her shy reserve.

Joe Perley solemnly bestows his trusty Ford (Model A-29) upon Al Olson.

Sue Petruzzi wills her extraordinary prevaricative ability to Doris Brown.

To George Schumacher, Stew Mitchell graciously wills his enormous dramatic roles.

Bill Valentino leaves his technique with the ladies to Joe Anthony.

George Grefe leaves his overwhelming school spirit? to Bill Copeland.

"Ricky" Hernandez leaves his love of our Activities Board to Leslie Frish.

Earle Osborne bestows upon Herbie Mitchell his chewed-up chewing gum.

Marion Bredell wills her ability to disentangle Junior Play tickets to Freddie Miller.

To Lulu Driscoll, "Tessie" Houwen leaves her love quarrels and reconciliations.

To Vincent Civa, Martha O'Kane leaves her short-hand genius.

Norma Jones wills her alertness to Rita La Bree.

Lily Casiani bequeaths her dainty diamond ring to "Bunny" Greenwood.

To Frannie Decker, Betty Regn leaves her inexhaustible supply of chiclets.

Ruth Burke wills her maidenly blushes to Marie Aspell.

To Ruth Shields, Dot Archer bequeaths her genial personality.

Carmella Matassa gives her "horse" laugh to Doris Durham.

To Johnny Lynch, Erford Hunter wills his bow-legs.

Mary Tevis requests that Marcella Clendining carry on her search for a handsome cowboy.

Bella Miller leaves her friendly attitude to Vera Kovba.

Helen Blake leaves her extra winks to "Ginzo" Valerio.

John Fognano bestows upon Tom Stewart his "bifocals."

To Joe Lombardo, Clyde Ehrke leaves his "nose for news."

Mary Bianchi leaves her ability at the Vari-type to Margaret Zoppel.

Bill Angelow leaves his position as Editor-in-Chief of the Cockleshell to Hilda Spivey.

IN THE SERVICE

Ho hum, 6:00 A. M. again. Up and at 'em boys! Come on, fifteen minutes to fall in. And so it goes—time to get up, time to fall in, roll call, back into the barracks for mess gear, and then to chow. Hurry up, make your bunk, shine your shoes, fall in again, and so to work.

In the evening, lights glow; men retire to talk and smoke, read, study, or sleep. Lights out, "taps" lingering in the still night. No one stirs except the men returning from pass, and the guard.

And then—still dark; but come on, boys! 6:00 A. M. and it starts all over again. That's Fort Dix and the National Guard.

Early in 1940 the National Guard and the Reserve became units of the regular army; and two of our classmates, Thomas Spivey and Le Roy Rowand, and several other students of Regional High School are in training at Fort Dix.

Tom will be remembered for his fine work in basketball and his superb performance as Paul Hollis in the Junior play, "Life Begins at Sixteen."

Lee was active on the gridiron and in baseball; when he hit the "apple," he sent the outfielders for a chase. Both were active in all class functions, and their helping hands are missed this year.

Another classmate who answered the call of his country is Royden Snuffin, now a member of the Naval Reserves in training at Noroton Heights, Conn. "Pat" will be remembered as one of last year's outstanding Regional golfers.

Lower classmen in our country's service are Robert "Lefty" Voigt, Ernest Powell, Lawrence Johnson, and Jack Holzermer. "Lefty," who was his class vice-president, will be long remembered for his excellent work in football, basketball, and baseball.

Lower Camden County Regional High School

Lower Camden County Regional High School first took shape in the minds of the community leaders ten years ago. At this time a committee was formed and a vote taken concerning the establishment of a regional high school for the lower part of the county. Unfortunately, the plan was rejected.

On June 8, 1938, Berlin Township, Chesilhurst Borough, Clementon Borough, Lindenwold Borough, Pine Hill Borough, Waterford Township, and Winslow Township created by popular vote, a regional district. The members appointed to the first Lower Camden County Regional High School Board of Education by Mr. Albert M. Bean, County Superintendent of Schools, were: Mr. Daniel Grimmie, Berlin; Dr. Robert P. Davey and Mr. Harry Attmore, Clementon; Mr. George H. Krueger, Chesilhurst; Mr. Albert Muir, Lindenwold; Mr. Charles Skerrett, Pine Hill; Mr. G. Norman Schleinkofer, Waterford; Mr. Joseph Lodge and Mr. Joseph Pino, Winslow.

The organization meeting was held on June 24, 1938, at which time Dr. Davey was chosen President and Mr. Lodge Vice President of the Board. Mr. Alfred Green and Mr. Bartholomew Sheehan were appointed architect and solicitor, respectively.

On September 7, 1938, the district voted a bond issue, which was approved, for the purpose of constructing the school. The bond issue covered fifty-five per cent of the cost and was subscribed by The Works Progress Administration as a Federal Loan. Forty-five per cent of the total cost of $575,000 was donated outright by the Federal Government. On December 12, 1938, the district clerk, Mrs. Edith Templeton, opened her office in the Camden Courthouse. Ground was broken for construction on December 27, 1938, by Dr. Robert P. Davey, President of the Board of Education, and actual construction began in January of 1939. In February of this year, the first school board election was also held. Mr. Daniel Horan replaced Mr. Daniel Grimmie and Mr. Joseph DeCerberio took the place of Mr. G. Norman Schleinkofer. Mr. Richard

S. Pollack was appointed Supervising Principal, and plans for the opening of school got rapidly under way.

The cornerstone was laid on May 30, 1939, with Senator Alfred Driscoll delivering the principal address. The American Legion Posts, Boy Scout Troops, churches, and other community organizations also participated in the ceremony. The official flag raising was held October 7, 1939. The exercises were in charge of the combined American Legion Posts of the district. Former Judge Clifford N. Baldwin was the speaker for the occasion, and music was furnished by the Federal Band.

School opened its doors for classes on October 9, 1939, only to be closed for a week and reopened on October 16 because of the lack of suitable furniture. A total of 644 pupils, comprising freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, was enrolled in the various courses offered by the school. There were 28 members of the faculty. This number was increased to 33 in 1940.

Soon after the beginning of the first school year, Mr. W. Lee German of the Art Department, planned and designed the school seal, a cockleshell mounted on a triangle with a Gothic capital, superimposed by a sheaf of wheat and a cog wheel. The cockleshell, which has been the symbol of culture since earliest times, represents the seven municipalities contributing to the school. The triangle symbolizes the three points of democratic government—freedom of speech, press, and religion. The Gothic capital depicts classical learning, while the sheaf of wheat and the cog wheel portray agricultural studies and industrial training.

In the school board election of 1940, Mr. Frank Donio replaced Mr. Joseph Lodge. Mr. Ferd Lorschbach took the seat vacated by Mr. Charles Skerrett, because of his prolonged illness, in the election of 1941.

Having completed two very outstanding years, Regional is looking forward to much success and progress in the future.

INTER-CLASS PLAYS

On February 7th and 8th the Activities Board sponsored the first annual inter-class one-act-play contest. The prizes offered were $40, $30, $20, $10.

The Junior Class, under the direction of Miss Bloeker, was the winner of the first prize. The Senior Class took second place with a play written and directed by Mr. Search. The Freshman Class, directed by Miss Gould and Miss Phillips, took third place. Fourth place was held by the Sophomores, with Miss Stanton and Miss Schumacher directing.

The judges, dramatic directors at their respective high schools, were Miss Jean Welsh, Camden High School, Miss Edith Kroener, Collingswood High School, and Mrs. H. C. Daniels, Moorestown High School. The judges based their decision on official standards adopted in judging interscholastic league one-act plays. Some of the essential points which the judges took into consideration were direction, stage mechanics, and acting.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's student council was elected after a series of debates and discussions concerning the type of student government that would be most democratic and effective here at Regional High School. It was finally decided that there be a graduated system of representation on the Student Council: two representatives for the Freshmen Class, three for Sophomores, four for the Juniors, and five representatives for the Senior Class.

To be eligible for office, members on the Student Council must keep up their scholastic standing and must have the poise, personality, and enthusiasm essential for good leadership.

The Student Council lists among its accomplishments this year the inception of daily detention for offenders of all school rules and regulations, the improvement of traffic supervision, the publication of a student handbook for distribution next fall, and some recommendations tending to improve the appearance of our school.

STUDENT PATROL

OFFICERS

Enrique Hernandez.....Captain
John Thumm.....Lieutenant
Erma Heppard.....Secretary

Enforcing the rules and regulations of the school, especially with regard to traffic in the halls, is the task of this group of civic-minded youths. Through the cooperation of both the Student Council and the Student Patrol, a system of traffic control has been devised which has proved to be effective.

Members of the Student Patrol are on duty early in the morning, keeping the halls clear before the first bell rings. During the two lunch periods a regularly assigned schedule is maintained, with a member on duty at all times. Members serve as receptionists and as guides for visitors. At every period during the day, you will see a patrol member on duty in front of the cafeteria, to give aid and information to visitors coming to the school.

The Student Patrol is selected by popular vote, one member representing each homeroom.

WASHINGTON TRIP

THREE PAGES FROM A DIARY

April 23

Dear Diary:

"That day" has arrived at last. We left for Washington 6:30 A. M. this morning. At 11:00 o'clock we arrived at the Franciscan Monastery, the home of many beautiful reproductions of scenes and places in the Holy City, Jerusalem, including altars over the spots where Christ was crucified and buried. At 12:15 we arrived at The New Colonial Hotel for lunch. After lunch we set out on a tour of Alexandria and Mount Vernon, visiting Washington's birthplace, the lodge, the church, and his home, Mount Vernon. Here our group picture was taken. And what a picture it is!

We then moved on to the Arlington Memorial Cemetery. While at Arlington, we visited the old and new memorial amphitheaters and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Returning to our hotel, we crossed the Arlington Memorial Bridge and got an excellent view of the Lincoln Memorial and the famous statue. After dinner we again took up our journey around the National Capitol with the Library of Congress our first stop. As we stepped inside, the beautiful rotunda inspired us to wonder at the genius of its originators. Our wonder was surpassed only by our feeling of reverence as we stood before the case containing the "Declaration of Independence" and the "Constitution of the United States." From the Library we went to the Earle Theatre and enjoyed a stage show and Bette Davis in "The Great Lie."

We returned to our rooms early, but it was rather late when we retired (3:30).

April 24

Dear Diary:

Up at 6:30 and "roaring to go," only to have our spirits dampened by the rain that was falling outside. After breakfast we boarded the bus for a visit to the F. B. I., the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and the Washington Monument, which proved both interesting and educational. Moving on, we visited the famous East Wing of the White House and were very much disappointed that Lillian's request for an interview with the President could not be granted.

After lunch we set out for a tour of the business and residential sections of the great city, passing the homes of many of the foreign ambassadors and ministers. To end the afternoon, we paid a visit to the Zoological Gardens.

After dinner at the hotel, we were free from 6:30 until 9:30 to go wherever we pleased, but not to get lost. At 9:30 the 1941 Class Dance began, and all who attended had a great time. As was our experience last night, we retired in the wee small hours.

April 25

Dear Diary:

Up at 6:30 and "at 'em." Breakfast as usual. At 8:30 we said good-bye to the New Colonial and started on the last lap of our journey. Among other places visited was the Smithsonian Institute, where we were very surprised to see several pictures of one of our faculty displayed in the photography exhibit—none other than our coach, Mr. Fognano. Moving on, we paid a brief visit to the Folger Shakespearean Library and with this stop bade Washington farewell. We lunched at Carvel Hall, Annapolis, and spent the afternoon visiting in the Academy. Among other things, the "Middies" on parade will always stick in our minds. We left the Academy at 4:30 and arrived, after several hours of hilarious fun on the bus, at Regional at 10:00 o'clock, very tired but wishing we were going again.

SYNOPSIS

"Our Girls" centers around a typical American family headed by Elmer and Mildred Lovejoy, who are the father and mother of Jesse, Francis, and Vivian, three "regular boys." The boys have these names to please Mildred's aunt who lives in England and who believes the boys are girls. When the aunt visits the family, the boys are made to dress as "girls." Complications occur, but the boys finally win their aunt over.

SYNOPSIS

This three-act comedy of youth takes place during the early part of summer. The action centers around Paul, a boy of sixteen, who has just discovered the meaning of the word "ideals." His twin sister, Frannie, helps him out in his exploits and the many complications that occur. Nevertheless, Frannie and Paul manage to turn the tables to suit themselves.

CHAPTER III

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

On October 16, 1939, we came to an entirely new school. As soon as possible, a class meeting was held, uniting us and establishing a feeling of good fellowship among the students. Jim Brooks, Ralph White, Gloria Craig, and Kathryn O'Kane were elected class officers. Miss Bloecker was chosen as our class adviser.

When the student patrol was formed, a member from each home room was elected to represent the Sophomores.

In November we made plans for a class party, an informal dance; and although everyone was a trifle timid at first, all soon entered into the spirit of the occasion.

The next event on our calendar was the Sophomore Cotillion, the first formal dance to be held in our School. Although the crowd was not large, a very gay atmosphere prevailed and the dance was a successful affair.

When we returned to school in the fall, it was with a feeling of snug satisfaction. We could afford to gaze condescendingly upon those poor struggling creatures, sometimes referred to as "rookies," with our own humiliation blissfully forgotten.

At our first class meeting as Juniors, Bob Conley, Jim Brooks, Gloria Craig, and Louise Gargano were elected officers.

Our first Junior affair, a masquerade dance, held on October 26, 1940, was a rip-roaring event, with pumpkins, witches, cats, clowns, gypsies, Hawaiian dancers, and costumes representing everything conceivable. The cafeteria was suitably decorated for the occasion.

On February 7 and 8, a one-act-play contest was held. We came out victorious, and our thanks are extended to the cast and to Miss Bloecker, who directed our play.

We are looking forward to the Junior Play with full confidence in the ability of the cast to make a success of anything they undertake. The cast includes Kathryn O'Kane, Thomas Fean, Claire Miller, Ralph Picot, Doris Warrington, Eugenie Myers, Helen Chambers, Grace Lohring, Fred Weissmann, Chuck Foster, Bob Weir, and Bob Kelling.

Four members of the Junior Class received positions on the newly formed Student Council.

The next event coming our way is the much publicized and much anticipated Junior Prom. This is to be an outstanding affair and is to conform to the idea of spring in its decorations.

Next year we'll be Seniors. 1942, here we come!

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The Sophomore Class started as freshmen in the fall of 1939 by holding a meeting and electing the following officers:

Al Olson.....	President
Bob Voight.....	Vice-President
June Markart.....	Secretary

The first affair the class gave was a party for the entire class. There was almost 100% attendance. In the spring of 1940, the class held a good old-fashioned barn dance. This proved to be the most successful dance of the school year. Good old square dances and Virginia reels were conducted. Refreshments were served, and teachers as well as students had a grand time. The gym was decorated to resemble a barn, and the atmosphere was really "corny."

The class had representatives on the Student Council, Student Patrol, and on the football, basketball, baseball, swimming, and wrestling teams last year.

In the fall of 1940, the class again held an election. Al Olson retained his office as president, Georgia Saunders, a newcomer to the school, was elected vice-president, Phyllis Muerdler was elected secretary, and Lorrain Young, also a newcomer, took the office of treasurer.

The class held a dance in the fall with football as their theme. The gym was decorated to represent a gridiron with pennants of high schools and colleges. This dance turned out to be another huge success for the Sophomore Class. Another dance is planned for May. It will be informal. This affair is expected to be as grand a success as have been all preceding functions sponsored by the Sophomore Class.

The sophomores entered the play contest that was sponsored by the Activities Board. In this contest, the class did not meet with its usual success. The play was a comedy sketch, titled "His First Shave." The cast was Paul Frost, Jean Sickler, Randal Lynch, Ethel Bailey, and Gloria De Stefano.

The sophomores have had representation this year in all activities of the student body. They have had active parts in student government and student patrol; in football, Joseph Anthony was elected co-captain for next year. The class has had members on the basketball and wrestling teams, and in all probability will have players on this year's baseball and track teams.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Nearly a year ago we, the members of the Freshman Class of 1940-41, first assembled as students of Regional High School. We hesitated to acknowledge our ignorance and timidity at that time; nevertheless, we were ambitious and eager to begin the first chapter of our life at Regional. The instructors and upper classmen were kind and considerate.

Learning that initiation was a thing of the past, we were happily disappointed, as we had looked forward to it with much anxiety.

Under the competent supervision of Mr. German, our herd, approximately three hundred in number, was corralled into the auditorium one day in the middle of the term. It was then that we became an organized class, electing Thomas Del Rossi, president; Catherine Lacey, vice-president; Ida Fisher, secretary; Edward Aspell, treasurer. Nine freshmen, one from each home room, were chosen as candidates for the two positions on the student council. The two elected by ballot were Mary Clendening and Rita La Bree.

The Freshman Class was well represented in the competitive sports given during the school year. Two of our members, Havard Ludweck and Thomas Del Rossi, were successful candidates for the varsity basketball team.

The first financial venture of the Freshman Class was the Senior play. Many freshmen attended both performances. Our class adviser, Mr. German, underwrote one hundred tickets as proof of our ability as salesmen.

The magazine sale was the next undertaking of the class for making money. A tidy sum was accumulated.

The cafeteria was the scene of a get-together party held the day before the Christmas Vacation.

On the evenings of February 7 and 8, one-act plays were given by each class. The freshmen presented "The Midnight Ghost." Miss Gould was the play director, assisted by Miss Phillips. The cast included Mary Clendening, Ethel Hipple, Mary Ernest, Florence McLaughlin, Margaret Holmes, Earl Lizotte, John Holzermer, and Bill Norcross. As the result of their efforts, the Freshman Class was awarded third prize, and the sum in treasury was materially increased.

As we temporarily disband at the end of the term, we look forward to our reunion in September with the comforting thought that we will be "rookies" no longer.

CHAPTER V

THE SHELL

Under the capable direction of its advisers, Miss Megargee, Mr. Muller, and Mr. German, this year's staff established our school newspaper among the leaders in the National Exchange for School Papers Produced by Mimeograph. In every school the newspaper plays an important part—and Regional is no exception. We are justly proud of our monthly issues. Our staff—Editor-in-chief, Hilda Spivy; Associate Editors, Rita La Bree, Ann White, and Minerva Blank; our reporters, and others too numerous to mention, have done a "swell" job with write-ups.

The business and production staff also deserves praise for its splendid co-operation with the other departments. We must compliment Miss Gould, Miss Phillips, Mr. Connor, and Mr. Pritchett for their able assistance.

The Vari-typer, a machine not available to all schools, added much to the attractiveness of the pages. Many improvements, including cartoons and more original articles, have been made upon our last year's issues and many more will be made in the future.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Regional High School Music Department was founded at the opening of the new school. The aim of the music department is to help students attain the following objectives: (1) to acquire the ability to appreciate and discern good music, (2) to discover and develop musical talent, (3) to recognize beauty in music, (4) to develop a technique of self-expression through either instrumental or vocal music, (5) to develop the cultural side of life, (6) to acquire skill which will have possible vocational value.

Instruction in music is in two divisions: (1) required, one semester of music for freshmen, (2) elective, instrumental and choral, open to upper classmen and freshmen groups.

The chorus includes members from the four classes who have progressed rapidly. The members of the chorus, upon entering, knew nothing of the essentials of music; therefore, the first year, the activities in which they participated were limited. They had to be taught harmony, melody, four-part harmony, and chorus singing. Their accomplishments for the past two years include a "Christmas carol" service and Sir John Stainer's "Crucifixion" during the Easter season. In the spring of 1940, the orchestra and chorus entertained the parents at a district Parent Teacher Association meeting and gave an assembly for Memorial Day. During the 1940—1941 season the chorus and orchestra saluted Lower Camden County in a broadcast over the Radio Station WCAM in Camden. They also presented a Spring Festival and played a major part in the service in commemoration of Memorial Day.

The instrumental classes train students to play brass, woodwind, string, and percussion instruments. As they progress, they are advanced to the band and orchestra, which meet once a week during the eighth period.

The orchestra, which for the purpose includes the band, performs for every assembly and all other functions when possible. Other than the broadcast and the Spring Festival, the orchestra added to its accomplishments by supplying music for the Junior Play and for Commencement. The band carried the colors of Regional High School to all football games. Underclassmen are urged to participate in the band and orchestra.

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Frank Haenle, great strides have been made in the past. A very promising future includes instruction in harmony, history of music, and advanced instrumental technique. When schedules are so arranged that sufficient rehearsals can be held, an operetta will be part of our annual schedule.

CHAPTER VI SPORTS

FOOTBALL

On October 7, 1939, the Regional gridders made their first appearance on the gridiron, at Glassboro. Our inexperienced boys went down under the score of 20-0. Not too bad for the first game.

A week later the Regional gridders remained home for their second game of the season, against Middle Township, only to bow to a score of 39-0. Regional then played the third game and was defeated, this time at the hands of Pleasantville, 39-0. The fourth and fifth games were no better than the rest: Gloucester 33-6 and Newton 24-0. In the final game, not depressed by successive defeats, the Regional team upset Hammonton by the score of 13-7, Fognano and Jackson doing the scoring, thus finishing the season with a victory under their belt.

On September 21, 1940, Regional started its second season of football history by bowling over Salem with the score of 6-0 as a result of a forward pass from Jackson to Weissmann.

After being in the winning column for one week, our Gridders again met the Glassblowers, who topped our boys 19-6, with Weissmann doing the scoring.

Regional's warriors regained their winning stride by defeating Swedesboro by the score of 7-0, Jackson making the only score.

The squad is as follows:

Another setback was suffered at the hands of Middle Township, the score being 13-6. Smith raced 20 yards for our only score.

After an open week Regional turned the tables by defeating Pleasantville 6-0. The touchdown occurred in the third period as a result of a twelve yard pass from Jackson to Weissmann.

Our boys then moved to the fourth triumph of the season by conquering the hard-fighting Gloucester with the score 7-0 when Rodio, our fast fullback, passed to Smith in the third.

On November 9th our boys traveled to Merchantville, hoping to bring back their fifth win of the season, only to bow to the score of 6-0.

Regional closed the football season in fine fashion by defeating Hammonton at the latter's field by the score of 19-6. The first score came in the second quarter when Jackson skirted left end for ten yards. The next tally went to Hammonton, tying the score at the half. In the third quarter Rodio pitched a perfect pass to Smith on the 15-yard line. Harry ran the remaining yards for the second score; Walker missed the conversion. Regional's third score came in the middle of the fourth quarter when Rodio tossed a pass to Jackson, who went thirty yards for the score. In a successful line buck, Jackson made the final score, thus ending the season with five victories out of eight games.

LEADING THE CHEERS

During the summer of 1939, before the football team played its first game the Cheerleaders' Club was formed, and under Mr. Haenle's direction had much practice before the first game of the season was played. Since these girls were without previous experience, there was much to learn. They have done a great job. The Club has done much to arouse school spirit and sustain interest in all school activities.

Members of the squad are Mr. Frank Haenle, coach; Ethel Di Muzio, captain; Mary Bianchi, Ruth Blaese, Marie Kuhn, Clara McCall, Lillian Norcross, and Grace Lohring.

BASEBALL

April 5, 1940, started the final sport of the year, baseball, and it turned out to be our best sport of the year. After being defeated in both football and basketball, everyone thought that baseball too would be finally tallied in the defeat column. This opinion was changed when we opened the season at Hammonton and came home with an 11 to 6 victory under our belts. We went through the rest of the season in perfect style, winning 4 games out of 11. This was very good for our first appearance on the diamond.

Our other victories were over Glassboro, Audubon, and Gloucester Catholic High Schools.

We are looking forward to the 1941 season with high hopes and a determination to win.

The squad are from left to right

First Row: M. Branca, Assistant Manager, Ed. Fanz, A. Munzo, R. DeRosa, Tom Stewart, Lew Rodio, George Eckstein, Lloyd Knowles, B. Stewart, Bill Coepland.

TRACK

The 1941 sports schedule for Regional High School includes a new venture, track. With an adequate number of experienced fellows to take part in both track and field events, the first season should be a very successful one. It may take a year or two to develop a really good team, but in any event the boys will put up a hard fight for victory. Even without the year of experience boasted by most of our other teams, the prospects are very much in favor of sending an excellent team out on the field this year.

Although the team is not without hopes of winning meets, its only goal is to make a good showing at the Penn Relays.

Row 1: Snuffin, Hernandez, Kelly, Scott, Mosley, Foster, Johnstone, Jones.

Row 2: Mr. Oakes, Coach; Sharp, S. Sharp, Thumm, Borzone, Sproul, Weissmann, Chant, Batten, Benevento, O'Kedis, D. Fanelli, Manager.

MARCHING TROOP

The Marching Troop consists of sixty girls and is led by three drum-majorettes, Grace Ferg, Claire Miller, and Gloria Craig. The Troop was organized during the summer of 1939 by Mr. Haenle for the purpose of building morale in the newly organized School. The girls of the troop wear blue skirts and white sweaters, and the majorettes wear white skirts and blue sweaters. This year two color bearers, two color guards, and a sword bearer were appointed to the troop.

During the half, at the Middle Township game in October, 1939, the American Legion presented the School with an American Flag and the School Colors. For this occasion the assistant drum-majorettes were color bearers.

In September, 1940, the Troop was taken over by Miss Holler and Mr. Fognano.

The Troop has much practice on the Athletic Field under the direction of the majorettes and the sponsors. The girls perform many types of drills, march before the games, during the half, and at the end of the game; they form the school letters and those of the visiting teams, supplying the touch of "beauty" at the football games.

BASKETBALL

With a smooth passing attack and a good defense, but lacking height and a good scoring punch, the 1941 Regional Boys' Basketball team played its second unsuccessful season.

Showing much better basketball this year than last, the boys played their best games of the season against Pitman, Gloucester Catholic, and Swedesboro, losing to Pitman after a hard-fought battle by the score of 22-16. On January 21 our boys met Gloucester Catholic, and having the scoring punch but lacking the stuff to keep ahead, went down in defeat by a tough score of 32-27.

Still determined to win a game, on February 18 our boys met Swedesboro for the last home game of the season. This game was another thriller, because the boys, ahead for the first time in many a game, as the last quarter got under way, became too excited and let the game slip through their hands by the score of 26-21.

Row II: B. Copeland, H. Mitchell, J. Gasior, J. Grieg, M. Broncho.

Row I: T. Fean, Manager, C. Hinson, I. O'Kedas, S. Sharp, G. Demarest, J. McGowan, J. Holizinger, S. Mitchell, Manager.
Seated: A. Gaumer, Coach, R. Weir, T. Watson, T. Del Rossi, J. Anthony, H. Ludwick, L. Rodio, C. Errera, J. Oakes, Assistant Coach

REGIONAL MATMEN

The Regional grapplers did a fine job this year. They were outstanding both in the wrestling league and among the school's winter-sport athletes. Out of nine scheduled meets, our boys won four—Admiral Farragut Academy (a practice meet), Gloucester, Glassboro, and Trenton; but lost to Cheltenham, champions of Philadelphia Suburban League, and Paulsboro, champions of the South Jersey League. The meets with Lawrenceville Academy, Blair Academy, and a return meet with Paulsboro were canceled.

The boys "did themselves proud" and helped greatly to establish Regional in the wrestling league when they closed the wrestling season in fine style by placing second and bringing home two championship, two seconds, and five third places from the South Jersey Interscholastic Wrestling Tournament at Paulsboro. This is the first time in the history of the league that a two-year-old team has placed second.

Our boys who took honors are: Donald Fanelli and John Spencer, champions; Thomas Fanelli and Robert Kelling, second places; and third places, Herbert Peak, Kenneth Scott, William Weik, Raymond Springer, and Frank Schloendorn.

The squad:

First Row: Spencer, D. Fanelli, T. Fanelli, Peak

Second Row: Kelly, Schloendorn, Kelling, Captain, Sproul, Scott, Jackson

Third Row: Mr. Clark, Coach, Shipman, Perley, Manager, Davies, Schumacher, Assistant Manager, Mosley, Freshmen Manager

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1940-'41 basketball squad showed teamwork in all the games played; every girl did her very best. The spirit of the team was inspired by the coach, Miss Letitia Holler. Virginia Mackler was the manager, and Helen Chambers captained the team. Although the season was not very successful from the point of view of victories, it has given the girls the practice to carry them through the future years.

Gloria Craig was an outstanding member of the team. There will be three girls graduating, but the team has experienced juniors and sophomores for next year and great promise in the freshmen. The team should be more successful in the years to come.

Marie Zuest, Violet Weigend, Marie Kuhn, Bernice McLaughlin have been awarded letters.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

There comes a time in every one's life when he or she takes time out from the duties and cares of the present to look back over those things that have passed, to take account of those things accomplished, and to see to whom thanks are due. It is at this point that I find myself today. The 1941 Cockleshell is ready for the press, and there remains only the task of finding suitable words with which to express my thanks. It would be nice to set forth in glowing terms the things that so many of you have done to make this book a success; but knowing that you understand my feelings, I will merely say thank you. It is impossible to mention here the names of all who helped, but I wish to make the following acknowledgments:

To our sponsors, Mr. Russell, Mr. Quinn, and Mr. Connor, without whose undivided interest and assistance this book would not have been possible, my sincere thanks. An orchid to Miss Schumacher for her helpful suggestions. My thanks to Mr. Nichols of Campus Publishing Company, and Mr. Rubin of Sarony Studios for their untiring patience in some very trying situations. My heartfelt thanks to my staff, whose cooperation and sacrifices have so greatly helped to make this book possible.

A SIGNIFICANT FACT, too obvious to require much elaboration, is the growth of the Campus Publishing Company. From seven to seventy yearbooks in three years, to make us the largest exclusive yearbook publishers in the east.

One way to explain it is to say that Campus is not an engraver, a printer, or any other type of processor, but a service organization well acquainted with the "ins and outs" of yearbooks; co-ordinating all the phases of yearbook planning and processing. Not being a processor, we can cover the field more completely. There is no budget too small or too large in which we are not interested, nor any reproductive process that we cannot supply — letterpress printing, engraving, offset printing, or gravure.

Using these processes to the best advantage, we now make available five different means to a good book. In letterpress printing, "MASTER-PRINT" and "ENGRAV-PRINT." In offset printing, "MASTERTONE" and "VELVETONE" — and in gravure, "REGENTVURE."

All five, from start to finish, are handled alike, receiving the same "Perceptiplan" servicing; specialized handling of your yearbook from the "infant idea" to delivery of a fine finished edition. All five are Campus books through and through.

These five — differing in price only as they differ in desired effect and budget limitations — possess in full those superiorities in appearance, economy, and general effect that have, in three years, made Campus the leading service organization that it is.
